

“WILL THE BATTLEFIELD KILL JIM CROW?”

Black Freedom Struggles in the Korean War Epoch

Dr. Kimberley L. Phillips
College of William and Mary

To commemorate Black History Month and Wing Luke Asian Museum's exhibit, "Still Present Pasts: Korean Americans and the 'Forgotten War,'" this lecture will address the tensions and contradictions of nonviolent struggles for freedom and racial justice and African Americans' participation in U.S. military campaigns in Asia.

Dr. Kimberley L. Phillips is a distinguished teacher and scholar whose work focuses on race, labor, culture, and U.S. history. She is the award-winning author of three books, including the forthcoming War, What is it Good For?: Black Culture and the U.S. Military.
